Weekly Adoration: You are Invited

This weekend, at all Masses, parishioners will be invited to become adorers by committing to one hour of adoration per week. Many people go to Adoration in Navan every week, BUT we urgently need extra weekly Adorers to maintain the great tradition of weekly Adoration.

Many people over the years have experienced so many extra graces and blessings through weekly adoration. Now it is your opportunity to avail of the many graces and blessings for yourself, your family and parish by committing to an hour a week in Adoration. Section B on the card you received when entering the church shows the hours where extra people are more urgently needed.

Harvest Mass, St. Mary's, Sunday 5 Nov, 11:00am. We welcome members of the farming community in our parish to this annual Mass in thanksgiving for the harvest.

Today is Mission Sunday – a day of prayer and support for the spread of the Gospel.

Rosary in St. Mary's Church at 6:30pm each day.

Users of St Anne's Carpark are reminded to use only one parking space per vehicle and that the double yellow lines are to facilitate emergency vehicles. Commenting on a vote taken during a meeting of an Oireachtas Committee last week, Dr Ruth Cullen from the Pro Life Campaign said "the committee have issued the verdict before the evidence was even heard ... 3 Pro-Life speakers were invited as opposed to 25 abortion advocates." We encourage parishioners to speak to elected representatives about the important matters of equality, life and death being discussed at present.

HYMN FOR TODAY

Praise, my soul, the King of Heaven;
to His feet thy tribute bring.

Ransomed, healed, restored, forgiven,
who like me his praises should sing?

Praise Him, praise Him,

praise Him, praise Him!

Praise the everlasting King!

Praise Him for His grace and favour to our fathers in distress;

Praise Him still the same as ever,
slow to chide, and swift to bless.
