Mass for Schools' List of the Dead

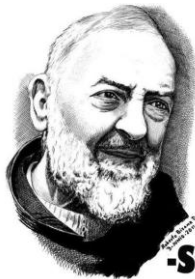

The Parish Primary Schools gather at all Masses (except 8am & 9am) next weekend to pray for the eternal rest of the deceased pupils and staff as well as family members of current pupils.

Please complete List of the Dead and return to the Parish. A offering is appreciated.

Please write your name and address clearly on the envelope provided in your Family box of envelopes. Remember them well: While completing your List of the Dead, we encourage you to remember those who inspired you in your life of faith - parents, grandparents, godparents, teachers, religious. Include a mention also of work colleagues, neighbours, friends from the world of sport and leisure, and relations in other countries. Lists are also available in the churches.

PERPETUAL LIST OF THE DEAD

Please contact the Parish Office for information

We must empty Purgatory with our prayers.

-St. Padre Pio

Praying for the souls in purgatory is not without its rewards. Can you imagine the joy of meeting brothers and sisters in Christ one day in heaven and realizing that you helped them with your humble prayers? "As we enter Heaven we will see them, so many of them coming towards us and thanking us," Archbishop Fulton Sheen once said, "We will ask, who they are, and they will say 'a poor soul you prayed for in Purgatory'." The small sacrifice of time we made in this life will all be worth it when we see the faces of those who benefited from our prayers.

A reunion of the WMOF volunteers from around the diocese of Meath is being organised for Friday 30th of November 2018 at 7:30pm in St Mary's, Navan.

It will take the format of a liturgical gathering led by Bishop Deenihan and will be followed by a social function during which a commemorative publication will be launched to mark the commitment of so many volunteers from our diocese. Details and registration available on www.dioceseofmeath.ie.

WMOF20018 COLLECTION

The fifth special collection is being organised for next Sunday 11 November. This will go towards defraying the costs of the recent World Meeting of Families. Your generosity at the Offertory Collection next Sunday will help with the shortfall in the organising costs of WMOF2018 and of the Papal Visit.

One of the priests of the parish will be available in St Mary's Church on Tuesday next from 5:30pm - 6:30pm.

This is a feature of many churches on the continent to enable parishioners and visitors to pray with their local priest, to celebrate the Sacrament of Penance, or to explore some guided prayer.

HYMN FOR TODAY

Abide with me; fast falls the eventide;
The darkness deepens; Lord, with me abide;
When other helpers fail and comforts flee,
Help of the helpless, oh, abide with me.

Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day;
Earth's joys grow dim, its glories pass away;
Change and decay in all around I see,
O Thou who changest not, abide with me.

ANNUAL "HARVEST MASS" OF THANKSGIVING will be offered on Sunday next 11 Nov, 11:00am. We thank the local farming community for their participation.

Rosary every day in St. Mary's Church at 6:30pm and after the 9:15am weekday Masses in St Oliver's Church.

The Autumn edition of the Meath Safeguarding newsletter is now available at www.meathsafeguarding.ie.
